

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE:

A pacifier includes a generally lemniscate-shaped shield provided with retractions on its two longer sides in the middle thereof, and a nipple fastened in a central opening of the shield. The shield, on each of both sides of the central shield opening, includes but one lateral opening that reaches as far as to the edge of the shield while leaving a frame part.